

Amerant Announces Manolo Cuervo as Head of Human Resources

October 18, 2019

MIAMI, Oct. 18, 2019 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Amerant announced today that Manolo Cuervo has been named Executive Vice President Human Resources. He brings over 25 years of human resources (HR) experience focused on achieving business results through human capital strategies to the company. Cuervo will lead all HR initiatives and strategies for the organization.

Prior to joining Amerant, Cuervo most recently served as Managing Director of Regional Rewards and Recognition for Citi across the U.S. and 20 international markets. During his tenure as Managing Director, he successfully drove a company-wide HR function transformation that included the alignment of organizational and operating models, and roles for country, regional and HR Centers of Excellence teams to the company's goals.

Previously, Cuervo also served as Chief Human Resources Officer for Mexico at Citibanamex, the leading bank in Mexico, with 45,000 employees and over 1,500 retail branches.

"With strong leadership skills and multidisciplinary experience in the field, we are delighted to welcome Manolo to the team, said Millar Wilson, Vice-Chairman and CEO of Amerant. "He will guide us in next-generation HR strategies, which will be fundamental to our continued success."

Cuervo has also held various positions at Citi (Citibanamex) in the compensation and benefits areas.

"I am honored to be joining Amerant and partnering with the leadership team to support the company's strategic plan, said Cuervo. "I look forward to being a part of building a talent-driven organization for our employees in order to serve our customers.
