

Amerant Announces Measures to Support Customers, Community During COVID-19 Outbreak

March 26, 2020

Company Committed to Help Those Impacted by the Current Global Pandemic

CORAL GABLES, Fla., March 26, 2020 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Amerant, the largest community bank headquartered in Florida, will be taking a variety of measures to further support its customers during the current COVID-19 outbreak. Effective immediately and until further notice, these include:

- No Amerant ATM fees for current customers and the community as a whole¹
- Waive late payment fees on all consumer and business loans
- Waive customer fees for deposit accounts based on needs²
- No negative reporting to credit bureaus for past due loan balances³
- Expert small business counsel, along with education on available resources
- Customer loan payment assistance on an individualized basis³

“As we strive to support both customers and the communities in which we operate, we are looking at how to best provide tangible, meaningful support,” said Millar Wilson, Vice Chairman and CEO of Amerant. “Our hearts and thoughts go out to the people that have been affected by this unprecedented event. At Amerant, the health and safety of our customers and employees is our top priority, and we are working to offer critical banking options as well as waiving hard fees during this global pandemic. We are in this together.”
